

BEACHES, LUXURY & HISTORICAL CULTURE

Day 1

Arrival to Panama

At the appropriate time a representative will meet and assist you at the Tocumen International Airport. Then you will be transferred to Miramar Intercontinental, check in and overnight.

Day 2

Panama City Tour

After breakfast, a guide will meet you at your hotel to begin your private whole day city tour.

You visit the famous first city of Panama (Panama La Vieja), this was the first Spanish city established on the Pacific side. Then sacked and destroyed in the year 1671 by famous English pirate Henry Morgan, who took Fort San Lorenzo on the Caribbean side and proceeded to Panama City.

Then you will visit the second city of Panama, Casco Antiguo. This city was constructed strategically 1673 after Henry Morgan sacked the first city. It was built by the Spanish and then used by the French during the construction of the canal. Also used by the railroad workers. Here you will be able to observe the diverse construction styles and city layout. Afterwards you will visit Ancon Hill to observe the city from one of the highest point in the city and then have lunch at a gourmet restaurant in the city, Manolo Caracol or similar.

Afterwards you will proceed to visit the Miraflores Locks, the entrance to the Pacific side of the canal. Here you will learn and watch this engineering master piece in motion. Then you will visit the French Cemetery, where each cross represents 1,000 people who died in the construction of the canal. Then you will be transferred back to Miramar Intercontinental.

Day 3

Panama City

Today you will have a free day to enjoy at your leisure. You may explore the city, go shopping or just relax by the pool. Optional tours are available upon request to the rainforest, Portobello, El Valle, Isla Grande and many more. Also today you will receive a special basket with an assortment of cheeses, fruits and wine. Overnight at Miramar Intercontinental (B)

Day 4

Azuero Peninsula

Early in the morning after breakfast you will have a surface transfer to the Azuero Peninsula. This diverse region of the country is made up of three culturally rich provinces: Herrera, Los Santos and Veraguas. The Pacific Ocean is located to the west and the Gulf of Panama to the east of the peninsula. Azuero is known as the folkloric center of Panama, the traditional clothing, such as the beautiful pollera, and handicrafts, such as ceramics based on pre-Colombian designs, originated and are still made in the area. Traces of Spanish-colonial Panama can still be found through out the peninsula in small towns such as Parita and Pedasi with houses with red-tile roofs and elaborate ironwork.

Your picturesque transfer will allow you to enjoy Panama's diverse terrain, starting in Panama City and heading west through the Cocle, Veraguas, Herrera and Los Santos Provinces. You will stop along the way for lunch and at other points of interest before reaching your final destination at Villa Camilla. Check in and overnight.
